POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Circuit Judge

The Interior Journal is authorized to announce Charles A. Harkin as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the Thirtieth Judicial District, at the election to be held November, 1911, subject to the action of the Demo-

The Danville Advocate which boldly denounces Lillard as the traitor that he is, at the time he voted against the democratic nominee for United States Senator, now, in telling of his appointment as Bradley's private secretary says that "personal enmity" caused Lillard to vote against Heckham and for Bradley. Nobody will swallow such stuff. Lillard told the democrats who elected him that he would vote for Heckham, accompanied Heckham on a speaking tour in Boyle, when Heckham spoke for him, accepted Heckham's money in his campaign fund when the legislature first convened told Heckham and his friends that he would not vote for him. "Personal Enmity!" Rot. Why has the Advocate gotten so soft on the subject? Let it look over the files and see what it said itself at the time Lillard played the Iscarlot act.

The Benton Tribune-Democrat, way down in Marshall county in western Kentucky, is another paper which favors a direct primary nominations law for Kentucky, advocated by the Interior Journal several weeks ago. And at the T. D. also says we must have those truly democratic fundamentals the initiative, and the soon or the better for Kentucky.

Roof Fell On Him

W. F. BALLARD BADLY HURT IN PREACHERSVILLE SECTION.

Prechersville, Nov. 28th. While tenting down a tenant house on the farm of P. E. Parrish Mr. W. F. Ballard was severely injured by the walls giving away letting the roof drop like a trap. Luckily Mr. Ballard was in such a position that the rafters and joists of the building, by falling lengthwise by the side of his body, kept him from being mashed to death instantly. By the utmost effort Mr. Ballard managed to relieve himself by getting into a more bearable position, but by so doing he severely bruised his shoulder. Calling to Mr. Parrish and the other workmen that he was not hurt much, he patiently waited until additional aid could be secured. When taken out it was found that the injured man was badly hurt, his right hip being crushed and sundry bruises with chances of internal injuries.

Mrs. G. W. Spangler, of Griffin, Station, raised some good sized squashes in her garden this season. The vine was 50 feet in length and bore a large number of the fruit, the three largest weighing 21, 44 and 56 pounds each.

Hon. J. L. Kennedy went to Crab Orchard and met Hon. Hugh Miller, republican nominee for congress from this district and accompanied that gentleman to Sugar Grove, Stanford and Lancaster where the "dear voter" received a hearty hand shake.

Miss Ha Pettus is at home for a week. The Crab Orchard graded school has dismissed on account of the fear of scarlet fever becoming epidemic, two cases reported at present. Miss Pettus teaches the primary grade.

Mrs. R. C. Kimball and little son, Harmon, of Crab Orchard, were visiting Mrs. J. M. Cress.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Roberts were surprised at the Methodist parsonage one night last week with a stormy party. The good parson and his wife were almost "pounded to death" and their larder was well supplied with substantial and dainties.

Rev. J. H. Thornton of Honsker, Va., is conducting a series of meetings at the Baptist church each evening. The services will probably continue some time. Prof. J. H. Thornton has charge of the singing with Miss Emma Holtzclaw as organist. The singing and music are quite a feature of the exercises.

DOCTORS FAILED. RESTORED BY PERUNA.

Catarrh of the Lungs

Threatened Her Life.

Miss Ninette Porter, Braintree, Vermont, writes: "I have been cured by Peruna."

"I had several hemorrhages of the lungs. The doctors did not help me much and would never have cured me. I saw a testimonial in a Peruna almanac of a case similar to mine, and I commenced using it."

"I was not able to wait on myself when I began using it. I gained very slowly at first, but I could see that it was helping me."

"After I had taken it a while I commenced to raise up a stringy, sticky substance from my lungs. This grew less and less in quantity as I continued the treatment."

"I grew more fleshy than I had been for a long time, and now I call myself well."

Miss Anne Bartles, of Griffin, Station, was the guest of the Misses Croushorn near Goshen. Miss Emma Holtzclaw visited her pupil, Miss Aliza McAllister at her pretty country home near here. Mrs. J. C. McAllister of Stanford, with Mrs. Lauretta Hatt and Miss Bessie Hatt, of Rockcastle were guests of Mrs. Susan Cress. Miss Ina Roberts and brother George, of Hubble were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Shaw. Miss Lucile Ballard has been sick. R. L. Smith, of Hatt, Ky., was with J. M. Cress and wife. Miss Eder Bartles was visiting Mrs. Mason Holtzclaw. Mr. Frank Lynkins, who has been ill of typhoid fever, is much better.

Rev. J. H. Pence of Ferndale, Ky., is assisting Rev. Wm. Mack Hutchins at Freedom in a protracted meeting. The prospects for a successful meeting are fine. Rev. Pence is an excellent divine.

While driving home one night with Mr. Harman Sebastian after church, Rev. Hutchins and the former gentleman were turned over by someone driving swiftly into their vehicle. This occurred in Garrard. It was a narrow escape.

David Anderson, Sr., of the Sweeney section of Garrard, had about half of his small crop of tobacco stolen a few nights ago.

Mrs. J. H. Cummins sold a pair of mules to R. E. Sherman of Monticello, Fla., for $250.

W. T. Smith of Lexington has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Tinsley Spoonamore.

William Russell little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Spratt is ill of pneumonia.

"Sure Cure"

"I would like to guide suffering women to a sure cure for female troubles," writes Mrs. R. E. Mercer, of Frozen Camp, W. Va. "I have found no medicine equal to Cardui. I had suffered for about four years. Would have headache for a week at a time, until I took Cardui and now I never have the headache any more."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

The pains from which many women suffer every month are unnecessary. It's not safe to trust to strong drugs, right at the time of the pains. Better to take Cardui for a while, before and after, to strengthen the system and cure the cause. This is the sensible, the scientific, the right way. Try it.

Moreland

Robbers entered the side window of Mr. T. A. King's store-house and robbed the store and post-office of $149. They left behind them a saw and an old key. The hounds were sent for and the robbers were trailed to Danville ticket office.

The singing school taught by Prof. Caldwell now in progress at the Christian church is rousing great interest. The piano used is furnished by Freeman Furniture Company. It is for sale anyone interested apply to the Ladies Aid.

Miss Minnie Shannon, of Bellevue, Ky., is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. G. A. Stivers and little granddaughter Elizabeth Bryant of Bluebell, Ky., are guests of Mrs. T. A. King. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. King were called to the bedside of their son Mr. William King of Pineville, Ky. Mr. King died of typhoid pneumonia.

Robert Hays son of George Hays, while gathering hickory nuts last Saturday morning fell from the tree and broke his neck and lived about two hours. He was buried Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. H. Young aged 88 died at his home Tuesday night, his wife Mrs. Young is the only remaining member of the family.

The protracted meeting will begin at the Christian church next Sunday morning.

The old old, story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.
